

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

at UM 2018

CLINT SMITH

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 2018 | 6:00 PM | FULTON CHAPEL

Clint Smith is a writer, teacher and doctoral candidate at Harvard University studying education, incarceration and inequality. His TED Talk, The Danger of Silence has been viewed more than 2 million times and was named one of the top 20 TED Talks of 2014.

Tickets for this event are required and will be available February 1, 2018 at the UM Box Office.

For more information or disability accommodations, contact the Center for Inclusion & Cross Cultural Engagement at (662) 915-1689.

#UMBLACKHISTORY18

Center for Inclusion & Cross Cultural Engagement
www.umculturalengagement.org

